Chair Robson stated that per Bylaw 12, Section 3 a special meeting had been called by P. Vallandigham, R. Johnson, R. Dawson, B. Nelson, and A. McArdle. The stated purpose for this special meeting was to consider disciplinary action relating to Mark Herd for his abusive and threatening behavior against party members, and for his continually disruptive behavior within the party.

The Chair then reported that Mr. Herd transmitted an email to the full Executive Committee at 10:00 am on this date (attached to these minutes) resigning his Central Committee Membership in the Libertarian Party of California; therefore no further actions can be taken by this Committee.

Mr. Herd made a request to speak. No objection was heard. Mr. Herd provided remarks to the Executive Committee.

To LPC EXCOM

This action by Angela McArdle to call a meeting to smear me 2 weeks before our lplac election is not only shameful but a complete waste of time and money as time = money. I did not join the libertarian party to be persecuted buy a click who doesn't except over the top free speech. Furthermore I see only one file but six are attached and we cannot open the others. I do not feel that this is a fair process. I also do not approve Angela wasting everybody's time. A $25 membership could be a $25 loss. But wasting everybody's time and energy over stuff like this that's worth a lot more then $25 and I refuse to waste everybody's time energy over Angela's mental masturbation right before an election. Angela has issues she should bring them up in debate prior to the election in Los Angeles at our convention. Unfortunately she is taking this route which is a big waste of everybody's trying and I am not going to waste anybody's time anymore. Effective immediately I am resigning from the libertarian party of California. Let me repeat I am resigning my membership in the libertarian party of California in protest or as an act of protest to Angela mcardle's rigging of two elections two years in a row and for the reasons expressed in my previous email to this board regarding Angela's improper posting of meetings police threats on members and so on and so forth. I am working on a very very important campaign right now and at the pay rate of 12,000 for 2 weeks I don't have time for this crap and neither do any of you. Let's all focus on growing the party and getting members on the ballot especially in Los Angeles where we had zero on the March 3rd primary. Thank you very much for your very valuable time and energy I hope this ends this once and for all. Bave a great day.

Respectfully, Mark Herd
